- iv. Upon receipt of the application/petition, annexes, and other supporting documents, including the pre-filing requirements submitted via e-mail, the Commission shall send an e-mail acknowledging receipt of the submission. Such acknowledgment, however, does not signify the completeness of the submission made.

Thereafter, the application/petition, annexes, and other supporting documents, including the pre-filing requirements submitted via e-mail shall be subject to verification, provided, that said documents were received by the Commission pursuant to paragraph (i) hereof, within the pre-filing cut-off period, from 8 o'clock in the morning (8:00 a.m.) to 2 o'clock in the afternoon (2:00 p.m.), from Tuesdays to Thursdays.

Any application/petition, annexes, and other supporting documents, including the pre-filing requirements submitted via e-mail beyond the aforementioned pre-filing cut-off period, shall be considered received on the next pre-filing day upon which the verification shall be conducted.

- v. If upon verification, the Commission finds that the application/petition, annexes, and other supporting documents, including the pre-filing requirements, submitted via e-mail are complete and fully compliant with the Commission's pre-filing requirements, the applicant/petitioner/its authorized representative/s may, upon instructions from the Legal Service, proceed with the Payment and Docketing Processes pursuant to Section 2 hereof.

On the other hand, if upon initial verification, the Commission finds the documents submitted via e-mail to be incomplete, the applicant/petitioner, including its authorized representative/s, through the e-mail address/es provided, shall be notified of the lacking documents and the period within which to submit the same, which shall not be later than sixty (60) calendar days from the date that the Notice of Lacking Document/s e-mail was sent by the Commission. Upon receipt of the submission, the Commission shall send an e-mail acknowledging receipt of thereof. Such acknowledgment, however, does not signify the completeness of the submission made.

The applicant/petitioner must submit the pending documents via e-mail pursuant to paragraphs (ii) and (iii) hereof, using the following format:

(Compliance - Electronic Pre-Filing E-mail Format)

To: (e-mail address of the Legal Service personnel who sent the Notice of Lacking Documents)

From: (e-mail address of authorized representative/s of the applicant/petitioner)

Subject: COMPLIANCE - ELECTRONIC PRE-FILING – (CASE NATURE OF APPLICATION OR PETITION [i.e. PSA, CAPEX, etc.]), FILING PARTY

Body of e-mail

Nature/Classification of Case:

Title of Attached Documents (in order):

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Thereafter, the Commission shall verify the applicant's/petitioner's compliance with the submission of the lacking documents, subject to the cut-off time as provided in Section 7.

If the submitted documents are still found to be non-compliant with the pre-filing requirements, the applicant/petitioner shall be given the opportunity to comply and complete the documents within the remainder of the sixty (60) calendar day period, if any. Provided, however, that upon failure to comply and submit the complete documents within the aforementioned period, the applicant/petitioner shall no longer be allowed to continue the electronic pre-filing process already commenced. Provided, further, that all the documents previously submitted shall be completely destroyed/deleted/discarded to preserve its confidentiality. This, notwithstanding, shall not prevent the applicant/petitioner from sending another pre-filing request to the Commission.

- vi. If further justification or clarification on the documents submitted via e-mail is necessary, the applicant/petitioner, including its authorized representative/s, shall be informed, through a Notice of Pre-Filing Conference e-mail, of the scheduled date of the pre-filing conference, which shall be within three (3) working days from the date that the e-mail was sent to the applicant/petitioner, including its authorized representative/s. The pre-filing conference may be conducted through a videoconference or conference call.

- vii. For applications/petitions for approval of Capital Expenditure (CAPEX) Projects, an initial review thereof shall be conducted by the Commission, through the Regulatory Operations Service – Standards Division (ROS-SD), to verify its compliance with the pertinent rules, regulations and guidelines issued by the Commission relative to CAPEX projects. As such, the applicant/petitioner must submit via e-mail an Initial CAPEX Review Request to ros.regulatoryoperations@gmail.com and standards@erc.gov.ph, using the following format:

(Initial CAPEX Review Request E-mail Format)

To: ros.regulatoryoperations@gmail.com and standards@erc.gov.ph

From: (e-mail address of authorized representative/s of the applicant/petitioner)

Subject: INITIAL CAPEX REVIEW REQUEST, (TYPE OF CAPEX APPLICATION [i.e. Application for Approval of Multi-Year CAPEX Projects]) (FILING PARTY)

Body of e-mail:

Case Nature: CAPEX Application

Case Title: (insert complete title)

Title of Attached Documents (in order):

1. _____
3. _____

The initial review of the CAPEX applications/petitions shall be conducted through teleconferencing or videoconferencing or by any other means at the convenience of the applicant/petitioner, provided, however, that the same shall be conducted during working hours and days pursuant to Section 7. Upon receipt of the request, the Commission shall send an email notification indicating therein the schedule of the conference.

CAPEX applications/petitions subject to initial review may also be processed through e-mail. In processing the same, the Commission shall send to the applicant/petitioner, including its authorized representative/s, through the e-mail address/es provided, the corresponding results of the initial review within ten (10) working days upon receipt of the request.

The initial review is required in order to guide the applicant/petitioner in establishing a CAPEX Program that is compliant with the pertinent rules, regulations, and guidelines of the Commission and responsive to the needs of the consumers.

No application/petition for approval of CAPEX Projects shall be filed without the necessary clearance from the ROS-SD.

SECTION 2. Payment and Docketing Processes for Initiatory Pleadings. – New applications/petitions shall only be endorsed for filing upon payment of the applicable filing fees through the Commission’s Cashier Division, or via Online Collection (On-Coll) through the following authorized banks:

SECTION 4. Service by Electronic Means. – Service by electronic means shall be made by sending the application/petition, pleading/s, motion/s and/or other documents via e-mail to the e-mail address/es of the person/s to be served. Any person/party may inquire on the e-mail address of another party to a pending case by sending an e-mail inquiry to the records@erc.gov.ph and records.erc.gov.ph@gmail.com.

Service by electronic means shall be deemed complete at the time the application/petition, pleading/s, motion/s, and/or other documents has been sent via e-mail to the person to be served, subject to the proof of service as provided in the succeeding paragraph. Service by electronic means shall not be deemed effective or complete if the party serving the application/petition, pleading/s, motion/s, and/or other documents learns that it did not reach the addressee or person to be served.

Proof of service by electronic means shall be made through an affidavit of service, executed by the sender, and shall be accompanied by a PDF format containing either: (a) screenshot/print-out of the e-mail from the sender’s “Sent” Folder indicating the successful electronic transmission/sending of the email to the recipient; (b) e-mail thread; or (c) any other form of e-mail confirmation showing receipt by the person/s to be served of such application/petition, pleading/s, motion/s, and/or other documents.

SECTION 5. Change of Electronic Mail Address. – A party who changes his or her e-mail address while the case is pending, must electronically file with the Commission pursuant to Section 3 hereof, and serve all other parties, a Notice of Change of E-Mail Address, within five (5) calendar days from such change.

Service through the e-mail address of a party shall be presumed valid unless such party notifies the Commission of any change, as aforementioned.

SECTION 6. Virtual Hearings. – Except as otherwise directed by the Commission, all hearings during the effectivity of this Resolution shall be conducted through videoconferencing and shall be hereinafter referred to as Virtual Hearings. Each virtual hearing shall be conducted as follows:

- i. The virtual hearing shall be convened and conducted by the Commission using the Microsoft Teams/Zoom applications or such other secure platforms as it may therefore allow. The Commission shall also post the live stream of said hearing through its website, whenever possible and applicable.
- ii. Each virtual hearing shall be scheduled by the Commission through an Order and Notice of Virtual Hearing which shall be sent to the respective e-mail addresses of all the party/ies of record and other persons as may be designated by the Commission. The date when the Order and Notice of Virtual Hearing are sent via e-mail by the Commission shall be considered as the date of actual receipt thereof by the parties.

All parties to the case, including their respective authorized representative/s and witness/es, shall be required to join the virtual hearing.

- iii. In case of a newly filed application/petition, interested persons may also be allowed to join the virtual hearing, provided, that they electronically file the appropriate pleading at least five (5) calendar days prior to the scheduled virtual initial hearing; and provided further, that, they serve a copy thereof to the applicant/petitioner within the same period through the e-mail addresses of the applicant/petitioner, and its authorized representative/s as reflected in the application/petition and the Notice of Virtual Hearing which shall be posted in the Commission's Website.

- iv. For newly filed applications/petitions, the hard/printed copies of the documents showing compliance with the jurisdictional requirements as provided in the RPP, shall be electronically filed before the Commission at least five (5) calendar days prior to the scheduled virtual initial hearing to give the Commission ample time to peruse the documents and verify compliance thereof. Within the same period, the scanned copies of the jurisdictional requirements shall also be submitted to the Commission via e-mail to the records@erc.gov.ph and records.erc.gov.ph@gmail.com, pursuant to Section 3 as may be applicable.

In addition, the scanned copies of the applicant's/petitioner's jurisdictional requirements, together with the newspaper publication/s and certifications issued by the concerned Office of the Mayors, or Provincial Governors and Local Legislative Bodies, shall be required to be posted on the applicant's/petitioner's bulletin boards. In this case, proof of posting shall also be attached to the jurisdictional compliance as provided in the preceding paragraph.

For initial hearings conducted virtually, the applicant/petitioner shall be required to host in its principal office, as its designated venue, the virtual hearing and ensure that the same is open to the public and the community quarantine guidelines are observed at all times. Moreover, the applicant/petitioner shall guarantee that, during the conduct of the expository presentation, the participation of the public shall not be impaired.

- v. For cases that are scheduled for expository presentations for the Luzon, Visayas, and Mindanao Stakeholders, all interested persons shall be allowed to join the virtual hearings from their respective areas, based on the scheduled dates as may be provided by the Commission.

For this purpose, the applicant/petitioner must ensure that the Order and/or Notice of Virtual Hearing issued by the Commission for the scheduled expository presentation must be publicly disseminated by posting the same on the bulletin boards, or in its website/s, if any, or through other means by which the stakeholders in each area would be notified and be informed of the scheduled virtual hearing so as to guarantee their participation therein.

The applicant/petitioner shall also be required, upon the request of any stakeholder, to provide an advance copy of its expository presentation at least five (5) calendar days prior to the scheduled virtual hearing, to give the stakeholder sufficient time to make its comments and/or clarifications thereto.

Any interested stakeholder may submit its comments and/or clarifications at least one (1) calendar day prior to the scheduled virtual hearing, via e-mail to the records@erc.gov.ph and records.erc.gov.ph@gmail.com, copy furnish the Legal Service through legal.erc.gov.ph@gmail.com. The Commission shall give priority to the stakeholders who have duly submitted their respective comments and/or clarifications, to discuss the same and propound questions during the course of the expository presentation.

- vi. In all cases, the copy of the Expository Presentation, Pre-trial Brief, Judicial Affidavit/s of witness/es, Petition for Intervention or Opposition, shall be required to be filed electronically at least five (5) calendar days prior to the scheduled virtual hearing. Service to all parties must also be made within the same period.
- vii. In all scheduled virtual hearings, the Commission shall send access link/s to the virtual hearing platform, within five (5) working days prior to the scheduled virtual hearing, through the e-mail addresses provided by all the parties to the case, including their respective authorized representative/s and witness/es, and such other interested persons allowed to participate therein.

- viii. All parties, including their authorized representative/s and witness/es, and all other interested persons who signified their intention to participate, shall be required to be in front of their respective laptop monitors, screens or cameras, at all times during the virtual hearing.

In the event of any technical issue that may affect the conduct of the virtual hearing, the Commission or presiding officer may, on its own initiative or upon motion by a party, suspend the proceedings until the technical issue has been resolved.

- ix. Virtual hearings shall be recorded by the Commission through the features provided in the designated online platform or by any other means available to the Commission. Nevertheless, a transcript of the virtual hearing, certified as true and correct by the Commission's stenographer, shall be made part of the records of the case. The said transcript shall indicate that the hearing was conducted through videoconferencing.

Any recording of the proceedings, without prior leave of the Commission, shall be prohibited.

SECTION 7. Cut-Off Time. – Except as provided under Section 1 (iv) hereof, submission via e-mail of all applications, petitions, pleadings, motions, and other documents must be within the Commission's working hours, from 8 o'clock in the morning (8:00 a.m.) to 5 o'clock in the afternoon (5:00 p.m.), and working days, from Mondays to Fridays.

As such, all applications, petitions, pleadings, motions, and other documents submitted via e-mail beyond the aforementioned working hours and days shall be considered received by the Commission on the following working day, except if the said day falls on a legal holiday, in which case, the date of receipt thereof shall be the next working day.

This Resolution shall take effect immediately following its publication at the Commission's Website.

Let copies of this Resolution be furnished the University of the Philippines Law Center – Office of the National Administrative Register (UPLC-ONAR) and all industry stakeholders as well as published in the Commission's website and such other online platform available to the Commission under the circumstances.
